

SAMUEL ALLEN

US Army National Guard

Samuel Allen currently lives in Chapin, South Carolina and is a member of the SC Army National Guard, 132nd MP Company out of West Columbia, SC. He took his oath of service on November 15, 2019 and shipped out for One Station Unit Training at Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri on January 22, 2020. After returning home, he continued his duties as a member of the National Guard, serving his country at home. He joined the Army National Guard not only to serve his country and community, but to learn new skills that would translate to his civilian life while furthering his own ambition of becoming a Law Enforcement Officer. Samuel is currently employed by the Newberry County Sheriff's Office, working as a Correctional Officer at the Newberry County Detention Center.

"I look forward to furthering this organizations efforts in South Carolina and working with other members of our military."

